Hello and happy holidays. I am fairly new to the Clay Center area. My husband & amp; I moved here 5 months ago I run a small hbb online thrift & amp; gift shop called Mattie's Memories & amp; More. In clay center, ks. My auburn, ne shop is closed) I don't have an actual shop at this time to where people can come and look but I do work by appointment and most of my sales I do are online but I have many of my items listed on my Facebook page. please feel free to check it out. I make a Ig assortment of items & amp; I sell a large assortment of items. I make lots of craft and novelty items like quilts, blankets, pillows, curtains, placemats, table runners, aprons, - , gift baskets, gift mugs, diaper cakes and diaper creations, wedding favors, tutus, table center pieces, candles and much more I also sell a large assortment of new & amp; used items. I sell online but please feel free to check out my page and if there's any items that you would be interested in please message me or call me my home phone number is 785-447-5020 also all the sales that we do throughout the year we donate a portion of our sales to helping those in need and from October to January we try to give a larger portion to homeless veterans and near homeless veterans and their family as well as battered & amp; trafficked women. If you're a crafter or a quilter I have many boxes full of assorted fabrics some by the yard some by the piece I have all sizes, prints, textures nd more again please check out my facebook page and if there's anything you're interested in please contact me and have a happy holidays from my family to yours from Mattie memories & amp; more
